

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

About the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) was passed to give parents increased control over what information is collected from their children online and how such information is used. The law applies to websites and services directed to, and which knowingly collect information from, children under the age of 13.

Policy & Disclosure

ABNB Federal Credit Union may provide educational resources, the online financial services offered through the website are not designed for, or directed toward, children under the age of 13. The credit union does not knowingly solicit or collect personally identifiable information (name, address, email, account number, telephone, social security number) from children under 13 without parental or guardian consent. Should we receive online information from any child, we will only use this information to respond directly to the child's request, notify parents, or seek parental or guardian consent. If you believe your child has provided personally identifiable information to us, please contact us at 1.757.523.5300.
